
TO HAVE CENTENNIAL—The village of Mishicot this year will observe the 100th anniversary of its founding with a big celebration June 14-15. Committees are now at work. Top picture is a view of Mishicot's main street today looking west.

In the smaller picture is one of the first homes erected in Mishicot 100 years ago. It is now occupied by Miss Elsie Rick. Originally on the main street of the village it was moved in later years to its present location one block north. (Herald-Times photos)
